FRIDAY OUTINGS

Kent Street Weir Cafe and Crown Casino

Friday 3rd May 2024

This cafe space is a place to begin, rekindle, develop, maintain, nurture and grow - a new relationship with yourself, your body and food.

Canning River Regional Park is a popular recreational spot with lovely water views.

After morning tea the bus will make it's way to the Burswood Casino for a couple of hours. Your choice whether you wish to spend your time in one of the many restaurants or simply spend your time inside the Casino either watch people partaking in the many opportunities to have a "Flutter" or try your own luck.

Swan Valley Station morning tea, followed by lunch at Duckstein Brewery

Friday 17th May 2024

"Morning tea will at the Swan Valley Station, browse in the Gift Shop and Nursery if you wish or walk around our huge 5 million litre marron lake & sculpture trail! With over $300,000 worth of sculptures you're sure to see something you love. A picturesque outdoor veranda area spilling onto a manicured green lawn where you can spend hours enjoying great coffee, cakes, tea and snacks.

Following on from this lunch will take place at the Duckstein Brewery, 9720 W Swan Rd, Henley Brook

"May Day" International Workers Day

Greendale Centre
Wednesday 1st May, 2024
1.30pm

May Day, or International Workers Day, is celebrated every year on May 1st, around the world.

May Day recognises the achievements of working people and acknowledges the significance of the eight hour working day.

Join us on Wednesday May 1st at 1.30pm in the Greendale Centre Dining Room for an Afternoon Tea, celebrating the achievements and hard work of our ancestors, paving the way to our current employment conditions.

We invite you to join in and share with your fellow Greendale Patrons what your First Job was and how the working conditions were.

Afternoon Tea provided - Gold Coin Donation.

Register your attendance at Greendale Centre, 9399 5393 or via website www.dalecottages.com.au

All welcome!
